"In your dealings with Stroud Business Voice ("SBV") you may provide us with information which may include data that is known as personal data. Where we process personal data we comply with statutory data processing requirements as set out by the Data Protection Act 2018. The personal data we will collect may include information relating to your name, address and contact details.

We will process your personal data to allow us to provide you with our membership services in connecting you to relevant other persons who are also members of SBV and keeping you informed of any consultations or other relevant market or policy intelligence which may be of interest to you which includes us managing future general administrative communications with you. Where you have agreed, or in circumstances where to do so will be in our mutual interests, your personal data will be used to provide you with further information about our wider services, as and when they are developed. You can opt out from receiving such communications by e-mailing hello@stroudbusiness.co.uk. In processing your personal data for SBV related purposes, we will only do so to enable us to provide our services to you and on the basis of it being in the public interest.

We will only use your data for the purpose for which it was collected. We will only grant access to or share your data within SBV where we are entitled to do so by law under lawful data processing.

The Data Protection Act 2018 provides you with Access Rights that allow you to gain an understanding on the data being processed, who we share it with, for what purpose, why we need to retain it and retention periods, to object to the processing and to place restrictions on the processing, to request copies of your data and to request the deletion of your data.

If you require further information on how we process your data or you wish to exercise your rights, please contact our Data Protection Officer by emailing hello@stroudbusiness.co.uk or by writing to Stroud Business Voice c/o Platform 14, 65 Bath Rd, Stroud GL5 3LA.
